

NeASFAA Scholarship Application

to attend 2021 RMASFAA Fall Conference

NeASFAA exists to promote professionalism, coordinate and network, train and develop, and influence legislation. In accordance with our mission and purpose, NeASFAA will provide up to two scholarships for the 2021 RMASFAA Fall Conference for the reimbursement of registration, lodging and travel expenses of up to $300/ea. For information about RMASFAA Fall Conference, visit www.rmasfaa.org.

- Application is open to all NEASFAA members and due August 31, 2021.

Please complete this form and submit to NeASFAA President-Elect and Chair of the Nominations and Elections Committee, Kimberly Vanosdall <kimberly@northeast.edu> for consideration.

Name: _____ Institution: _____
Institution Type: _____ Current Position: _____
Phone: _____ Email: _____

How long have you worked in financial aid? Less than 3 years (beginner)
 More than 3 years (intermediate/advanced)

Have you ever attended RMASFAA Fall Conference? Yes No

Will your institution permit you to be out of the office for the Fall Conference Dates Oct 10th - 13th? Yes No

Will your institution agree to cover expenses not covered by the scholarship, if applicable (e.g., RMASFAA dues)? Yes No N/A

Essay Prompt Response (250 to 500 words each)

Please answer the following questions on a separate document and submit with this form. Please submit typed, double-spaced, and in a standard font (e.g., Times New Roman). Please limit each response to 250 to 500 words. Please make sure your name is on the separate document (and submit via email as noted above).

1. Tell us about the experiences that have shaped you as a person and financial aid professional, such as your community, family, or other circumstances you have overcome; your leadership/service experiences; your career goals; examples of your commitment to help underserved communities; experiences you have had with diverse communities; and/or contributions to your institution or local community.
2. Why are you interested in attending RMASFAA's 2021 Fall Conference and how will you benefit? What do you anticipate you will gain personally and professionally and how will you utilize what you learn to benefit your institution and NeASFAA?

Supervisor Authorization to Participate _____

Applicant _____

Printed Name

Signature

Signature

Date

Note: if you learn you are not able to attend RMASFAA Fall Conference, please notify Kimberly Vanosdall immediately.